Call to Order – A regular meeting of the Coventry Lake Advisory & Monitoring Committee was called to order on Monday, May 10, 2021 at 7:05 p.m. via ZOOM video conference by Chair Debby Zeppa. Other members present were Suzanne Choate, Carly Imhoff, and Scott Gallo.

Secretary's Report –Scott made a motion to accept the April minutes. Seconded by Suzanne and the minutes were approved.

Audience of Citizens – None

Old Business –

Boating safety – Scott asked to send out another reminder for people to wear their life jackets after a kayaker in Putnam died over the weekend.

Lake dam gate/ Water level – Scott reported that it is 2.5 inches above.

Lake Reports: Two social media posts have been shared through the committee. These “articles” are promoting dialogue regarding the lake reports.

Watershed pledge –Lake pledges are coming in. The first pledge came in on Earth Day! Scott has already received his sticker. Carly reached out to lake association presidents and encouraged them to share the pledge with their associations.

New Business –

Suzanne and Debby went to a workshop on Secchi disc readings. The town is purchasing a special thermometer to use while taking Secchi disc readings. Suzanne and Scott both have Secchi discs to take readings throughout the summer..

Suzanne and Debby went to the land use consortium last week. Coventry received a grant from the DEEP to study lake tubers and treat the lake. The town will also be treating Eagleville Lake. This September will be the tenth anniversary of the Coventry Lake Advisory and Monitoring Committee.

Scott brought up the newsletter. Scott will send everyone the last two as examples and we can discuss more at the next meeting.

Correspondence/Communications – None

Members Forum – None

Adjournment – There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 7:37 p.m.

Respectively submitted,

Carly Imhoff
