To whom this may concern,

Caroline has been my neighbor for over 5 years. In the past 5 years we have had no problems. She has volunteered at shelters which she had to care for multiple animals at a time. This has never been a problem for us as her neighbor. If she were to use the back lot (which is also against my property line) for livestock, my husband and I have no problem with it. She has always kept up her yard and her animals have never been a problem and are well cared for. When moving here to Coventry I knew I'd be around farm animals/ rescues. If she decides on livestock they will not affect us or our family.

To Whom it May Concern:

My neighbor Caroline Johnson, is looking to get permission to utilize her property for a mini rescue for abandoned and mistreated animals. They have been very responsible with the care of their property, and the care of the animals they already have. They already foster for PawSafe rescue. We have adopted a few of the puppies that she fostered already.

The animals she is looking to help would benefit from what she is trying to do. There are not enough people out there who are willing to do this type of thing. She has my full blessing and whatever assistance she may need from my family.

Sincerely,
